Introduction:

The CENEx event which was conducted by the AVISHKAR CLUB which was held on 25- 10-2019, in the Department of Civil Engineering. The event was inaugurated by Dr. Niranjan.P.S, HOD of Civil Engineering, the inauguration speech was given by Sanchita Paul Choudhury President of Avishkar club, which was later followed by our HOD. The event started by 11 am and ended by 4 pm.

Date and Time : 25/10/19 and 9: am

Venue : CIVIL DEPARTMENT

Number of participants: 58

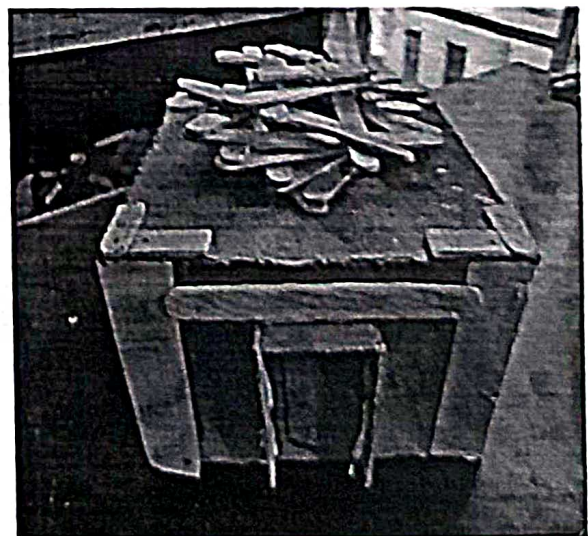

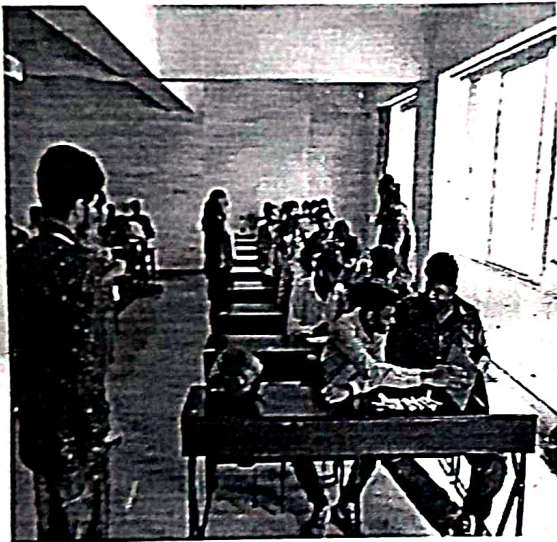

• EARTHQUAKE PRO :

Duration: 1 hr Member: 2

It is an event in which we have to make a structure of G+2 out of given materials and the best and efficient structure to withstand the seismic variations will be awarded.

9 groups had participated in the event. Students were prepared for what they wanted to build. Several materials like ice cream sticks, rubber band, glue, thumb-pins and cardboards were given to the participants, Out of which they had to build a structure.

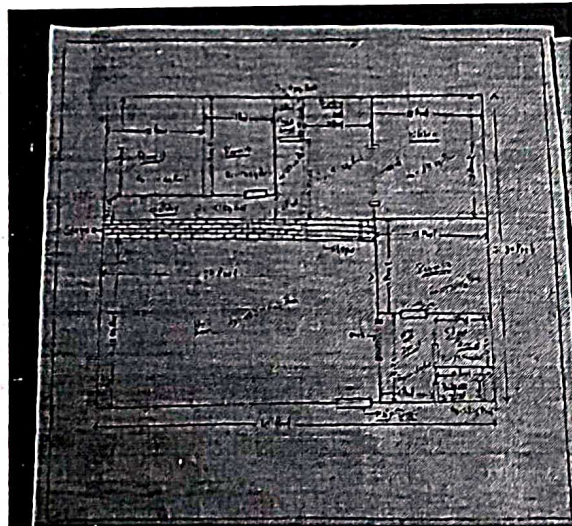

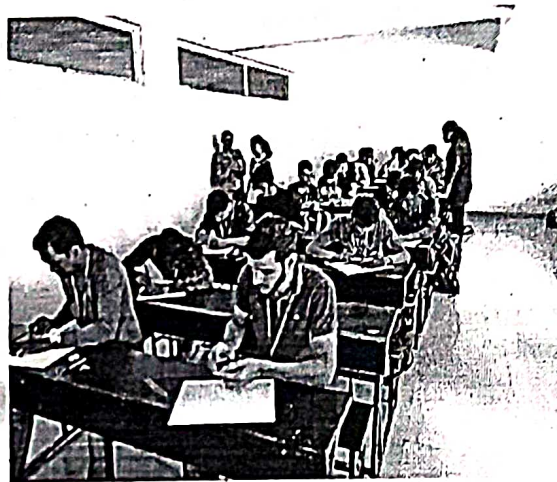

• CAD BETA :

Duration: 1 hr Member: 1

With the help of vastu sastra and concept students were told to create a best suitable plan for 1250sqFT with amenities.

Almost 22 students had participated in the event. Participants were given a draft sheet with the materials required.

Participants had made very good plans with their creative ideas.

- DISTANCE HUNTER :

Duration: 1 hr Member: 2

By applying the concept of measuring distance and inclination on the road without the use of any instrument. 8 groups participated in this event.

There were three stages in the event,

First they had to crack the riddle

They were asked to drink a bottle of water the timing was noted down respectively and the first 6 teams were qualified.

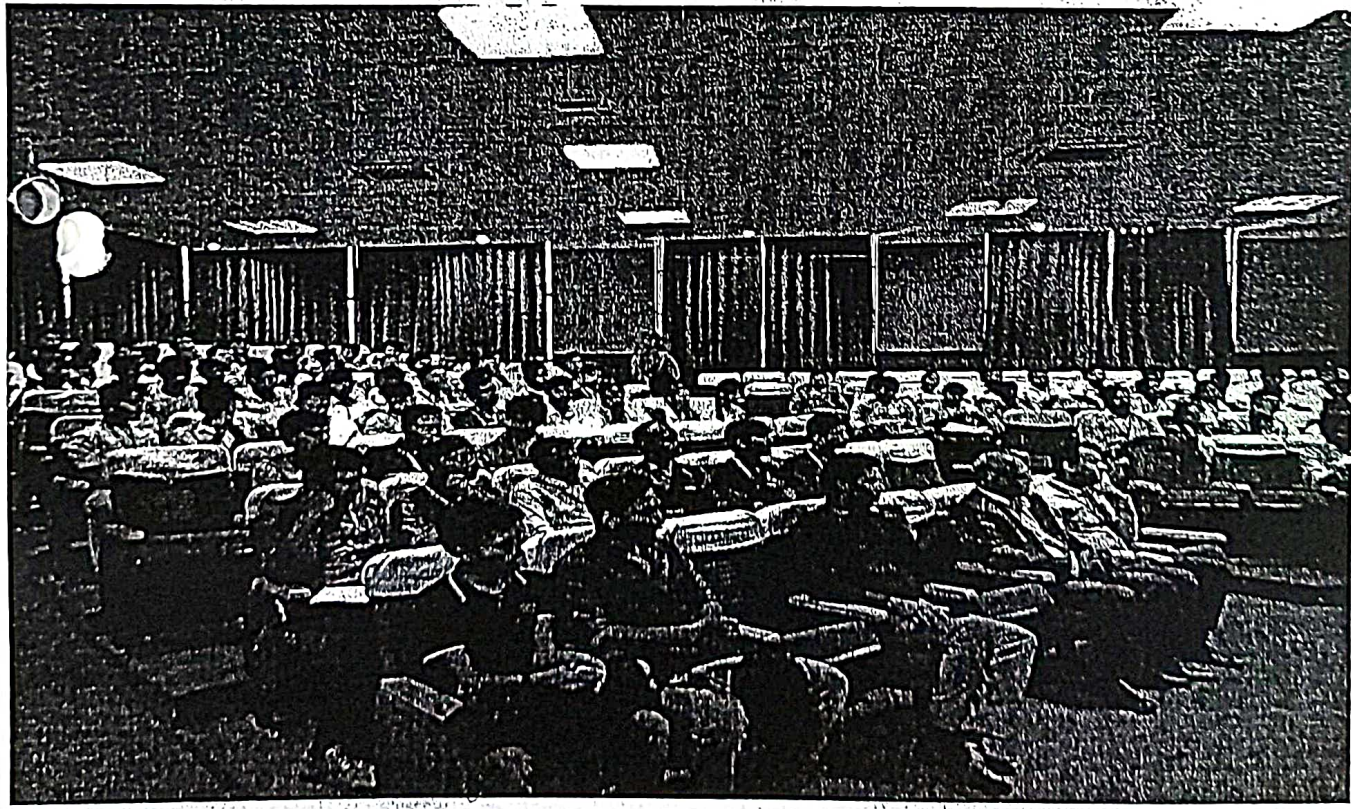

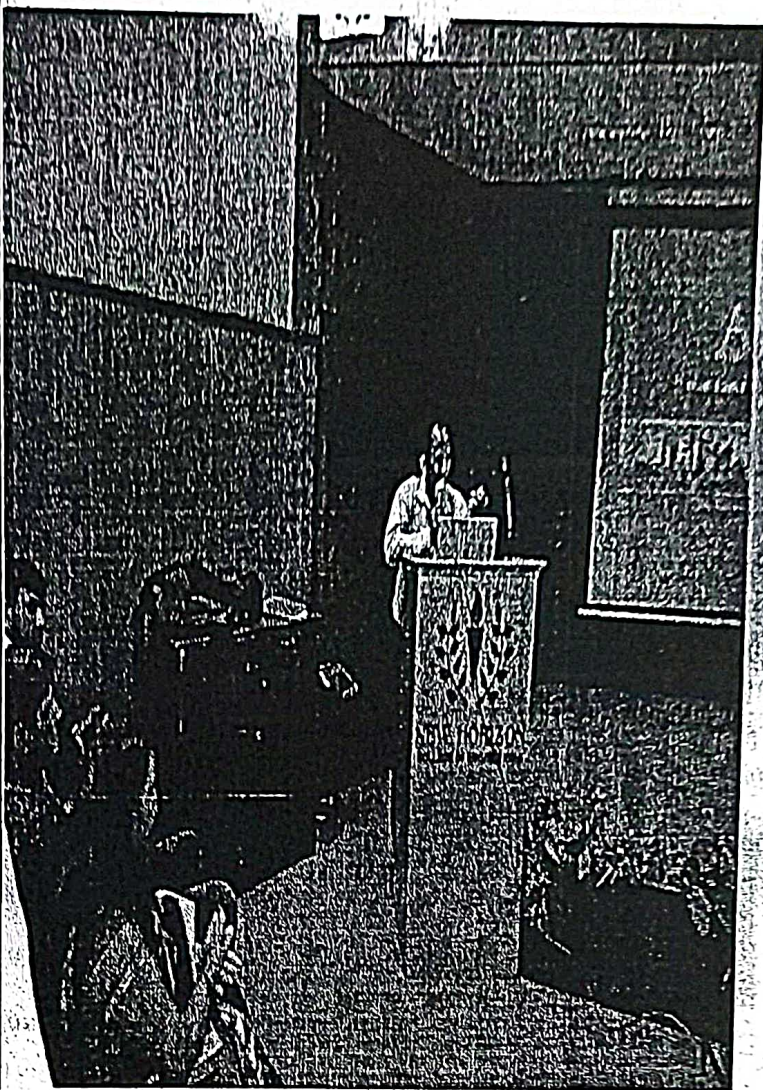

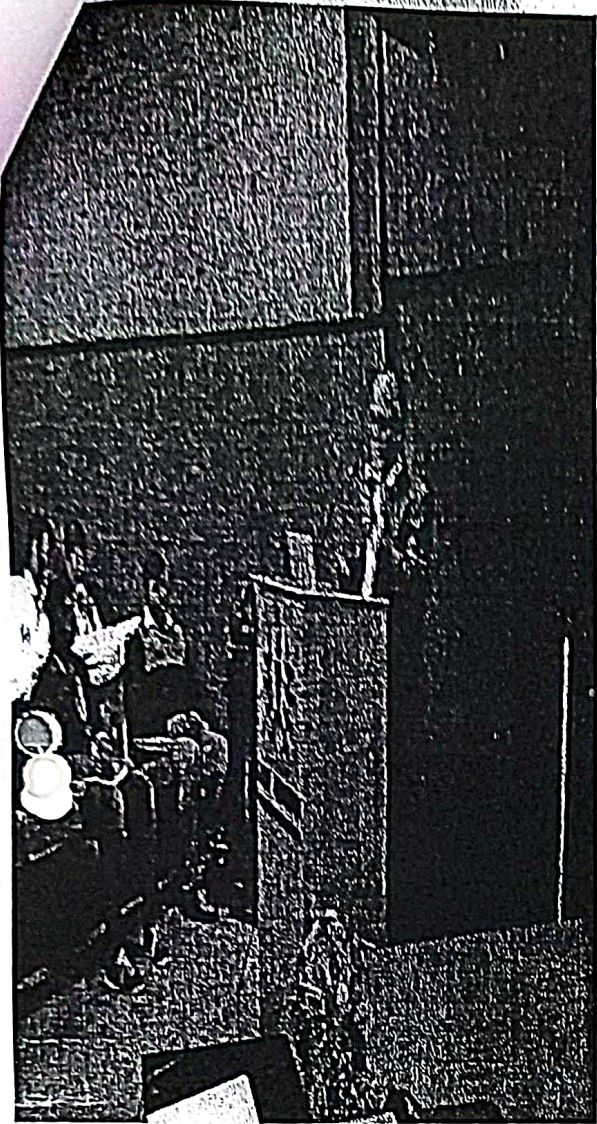

Several measured points were given where they had to identify the distance. The accurate answers were considered and were awarded.

Conclusion:

By this event the young talents were recognized and appreciated. Totally it was a great success. We thank our HOD of civil department for giving us the opportunity to conduct an event and also the faculty coordinators who cooperated for all the needs of the event, and also the student coordinators for making it a cheerful event.
